A Sure Way To Make New Connections

For 20 years, TDWI has helped organizations—from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies—consistently reach qualified business intelligence (BI), data warehousing (DW), and analytics professionals. During that time, we have seen a shift in the makeup of the TDWI audience and, today, both business executives and IT professionals participate in equal numbers in many of our programs.

TDWI events attract professionals from all types of organization, big and small, and at all stages of maturity, and keep them coming back by providing:

- > High-quality, vendor-neutral educational offerings
- > Thought leadership and independent analyst research and information
- > Trusted sources for emerging ideas and trends in technology

TDWI Events Cover a Vast Field of Technologies and Trends

- > Agile Business Intelligence
- > Big Data Analytics
- > Business Analytics
- > Business Intelligence
- > Cloud
- > Cloud BI, Social Media, Mobile BI
- > Data Management (Integration, Quality, Governance, etc.)
- > Hadoop
- > Internet of Things
- > Data Warehousing
- > Performance Management
- > Predictive Analytics
- > SaaS, Open Source, Self-Service BI
- > Visualization, and much more...

TDWI Events Are Not Your Typical Events

> Exclusive Exhibit Time

Get undivided attention from attendees with exclusive exhibit and networking time! TDWI does not schedule courses or sessions during exhibit hours or receptions.

> High-Quality Leads

Every contact you make is a potential customer. TDWI allows only paid attendees and Premium Members access to exhibitors, so you are assured of quality leads and a significant ROI.

> Education and Thought Leadership

The educational format of TDWI events draws highly engaged attendees who have a vested interest in BI/DW and analytics. These professionals know the industry and look forward to interacting with exhibitors to hear about products and services.

> Reputation and Trust

TDWI is ready to work with you to make your experience valuable and enjoyable.

In-House Thought Leadership

Philip Russom, Ph.D., is director of TDWI Research for data management and oversees many research-oriented publications, services, and events. He is a well-known figure in data warehousing and business intelligence circles, having published over 500 research reports, magazine articles, opinion columns, speeches, Webinars, and more. Before joining TDWI in 2005, Russom was an industry analyst covering BI at Forrester Research and Giga Information Group. He also ran his own business as an independent industry analyst and BI consultant and was a contributing editor with leading IT magazines. Before that, Russom worked in technical and marketing positions for various database vendors.

David Stodder is director of TDWI Research for business intelligence. He focuses on providing research-based insights and best practices for organizations implementing BI, analytics, data discovery, data visualization, performance management, and related technologies and methods. Stodder has provided thought leadership about BI, analytics, information management, and IT management for over two decades. Previously, he headed up his own independent firm and served as vice president and research director with Ventana Research. He was the founding chief editor of Intelligent Enterprise and served as editorial director for nine years.

Fern Halper, Ph.D., is director of TDWI Research for advanced analytics. She is well known in the analytics community, having published hundreds of articles, research reports, speeches, Webinars, and more on data mining and information technology over the past 20 years. Halper is also co-author of several “Dummies” books on cloud computing, the hybrid cloud, and big data. She focuses on advanced analytics, including predictive analytics, social media analysis, text analytics, cloud computing, and “big data” analytics approaches. She has been a partner at industry analyst firm Hurwitz & Associates and a lead analyst for Bell Labs. Her Ph.D. is from Texas A&M University.

TDWI brings its audience together with the leading independent analysts, instructors, and writers in the industry. Among them:

- > Chris Adamson
- > Linda Briggs
- > Stephen Brobst
- > Maureen Clarry
- > Steve Dine
- > Wayne Eckerson
- > Jonathan Geiger
- > Claudia Imhoff
- > David Loshin
- > Mark Madsen
- > Mark Peco
- > Stephen Swoyer
- > Dave Wells
- > Colin White
- > Lyndsay Wise

Qualified Business and IT Audiences

Business intelligence and analytics are no longer solely the realm of IT. Consequently, the TDWI audience has evolved to include line-of-business and higher management professionals who are looking for education and research materials to help them better understand how to use data to their advantage. Sponsorship Opportunities

TDWI Conferences offer limited speaking opportunities in keeping with the vendor-neutral aspect of these events. To help exhibiting companies communicate with attendees directly and further business communication, TDWI offers sponsorships such as hospitality suites, attendee luncheon presentations, and case study presentations as a means for your company to address attendees directly and further business communication.

Hospitality Suite/Hands-on Lab

This sponsorship includes a flyer in attendee bags, a one-time use of the attendee list for a pre-conference mailing, and publicity in conference communication. You must reserve hospitality suites/hands-on labs through TDWI.

Turn-Key Luncheon, by Invitation Only

Host a turn-key luncheon for up to 40 targeted attendees during the conference. TDWI handles all the details for you—you just need to show up and present your newest technology or successful customer/business story.

Vendor Case Study Presentation

Present a successful case study to conference attendees during exhibit hall hours. It's a great way to tell the story and further communicate with professionals looking for solutions.

More Sponsorship Opportunities

- Conference lanyards
- Conference program guide ad
- Exhibit hall giveaways coupon book
- Bag inserts or hotel room drops
- Breakfast or break sponsorship

“Excellent opportunity to hear from people actively engaged in implementing BI, DW, and analytics. A good place to cut through marketing messages and learn what’s actually happening in the trenches.”
